You-tien Hsing is Associate Professor of Geography at University of California, Berkeley. She is the author of Making Capitalism in China: The Taiwan Connection (Oxford University Press, 1998), and The Great Urban Transformation: Politics of Land and Property in China (Oxford University Press, 2010). This talk is about her new book on China's radical urban expansion, which, she argues, provides one of the most effective angles to understand the socio-cultural, economic and political dynamics in post-Mao China.
